

WRSU 88.7fm is New Brunswick's premier college radio station. The station offers its listenership (which is comprised of the University and surrounding community) a diverse programming alternative to modern radio. WRSU is a non-commercial volunteer station, funded primarily through Rutgers, but also by program grants from local record stores, and by underwriting from local businesses. Programs on WRSU range from a wide variety of musics, to sports and news coverage to multicultural and educational formats.

WRSU's Staff:

General Manager: Damian Weinkrantz/Jaclyn Bertsch
 Business Manager: Beth Reardon
 Program Director: Jaclyn Bertsch
 Production Director: Mark Ryan
 Promotions Director: Damian Weinkrantz
 Music Director: Jared Midgen/Ian Orth
 RPM: Anthony D'Agustino
 Urban: Ahsan Dowling
 Technical Director: Robert Bertrand
 News: Romina Perone
 Sports: Dan Strafford
 Broadcast Administrator: Tim Espar

Promotional Staff:

Ian Orth, Nick Fassler, Sara Toth, Kt Sova, Jen Merrit, Sam Gomez, Jeanette Kimszal, Christopher Hayden, Floren Taylor and two or three more TBA.

Sound: Wil Barker, Jon Hiltz

Thanks be: mighty thanks to Kathleen Kuehn, without whom none of this would be possible, Ian Orth, Nick Fassler, Paul Brighton, Wil Barker, Jon Hiltz, Brendan Leach(drawings), the many bands, promoters, and fans and to Tim Espar for giving us the green light. Hopefully more of these things can happen in good ole New B.

Pretending that New Brunswick has a good music scene

Bands on the bill

Action Potential- the all star spelling bee champs try and wump a humdinger by you. See if you can catch it.
AM/FM (PolyVinyl): Sweet songs of creativity crafted together to make you slap your knee and say damn.

Arab on Radar (Skin Graft Records) – Look, if you haven't seen this band yet then essentially, you just haven't really lived. Do I dance? Do I laugh? Do I run? No, my friend. Arab on Radar's performance is merely "a shelter for the music, the music lover's place of excitement...lights of the music world, the guidelines for the music world's means of salvation. Through this you shall find redemption." As if that's not enough to convince you, AOR is also considered "anti-math rock at its most expressive; guitars bleed, scream, wheeze and emote. The drums keep the proceedings utterly jiggable and hyper-energized, while the vocals articulate tinges of oral melody only HINTED at previously."

Atomic Missiles: Local guys playing fun punk songs within the Modern Lovers vein.

The Boggs (Arena Rock): Down home yet dirty folky/country moonshine drinking songs.

Capitol City Dusters: Energy flowing into your eardrums, straight ahead Dischord records fun

Drive Til Morning: Alt. country meets keyboards and sequencers, and gives you goosebumps all over

Ex-Models (Ace Fu Records/My Pal God Records) - Frantic 4-piece from Brooklyn by way of [New Brunswick] NJ...Aggressive and artistic pounding which carries the musical torch of Devo, Talking Heads, and Shellac. New split EP w/ the Seconds available for the first time at the fest's record fair via My Pal God!

Home Alaskan- (Low City) Beautiful songs by the guy you don't want to be sitting next to on the train...carrying Nebraska-ish Springsteen flavah.

Jersey Country All Stars: Hold your special someone close while these folk/country tunes warm you up.

Ted Leo & Rx (Lookout, Gern Blandsten): Amazing pop songs to warm your heart and get your juices flowing...don't be scared, go dance with that guy/girl you've been checking out all day.

Low End Theory: Two guitars, bass, and drums no non-sense 2000 pop punk/emo rock/indie rock....whatever it's called now.

the Love Scene(GrapeOs): Fueled by a sound lying somewhere in the ocean of Swervedriver, The Jam, and The Who yet untypically American indie Magnet City Kids-Way out! Down low! Get down!

Mark- Attacking pummeling rock from math books. Huzzah!

Orthreilm (Troubleman Unlimited)- "A guitar and drum-based duo out of Washington, DC/Brooklyn, NY that play intense, very fast, abstract, free-jazz inspired, sometimes incomprehensible, prog-hardcore (Troubleman Unlimited)." Features ex-CromTech guitarist Mick Barr, (best guitarist ever? You decide..) and ABC's drummer, Josh Blair.

Palomar(Self Starter): Palomar is a NYC band that plays gritty sing-song pop-rock, in the vein of Heavenly, Tiger Trap.

Pixeltan (Troubleman Records)- This Brooklyn three-piece emphasizes the sound created when using multiple percussion instruments—(think club...think beats...think dance).

Q and not U: Dischord records masters of quirky

(artsy?) yet poppy sing a along anthems to make you dance away the night...you can even clap along.
Radio 4(Gern Blandsten) : Equal parts The Clash and Brooklyn art-punk.....Your head is bobbing cause your neck knows what's up.

Realistics (Tiswas)- Sassy new wave/pop/punk-rock from NYC propelled by endless guitar hooks and raw energy. Reminiscent of the Clash, the Jam, and an 80's prom party. . . .look out!

Risk Relay- Hot sauce! Rock n Roll!

Robbers- Psychedelic rumblings from the bottom of NJ.

Rye Coalition (Gern Blanstern Records/Tiger Style Records) – No frills rock n' roll from Jersey City. Part Zeppelin, part GnR, all whiskey, all sex. "The point is this. Rye Coalition has arrived to remedy rock n' roll's deafening heartache (Tiger Style)."

The Seconds (5rc)-"The Seconds are serious-ass punk rockers, an energy delivery device, frantic but thoughtful, a herky-jerky trio of spastic, schizophrenic energy and songs you know by before you hear them."

Thrones (Kill Rock Stars) – "Joe Preston is an authority on 'heavy,' apprenticing his craft as a low-end maestro in the now-defunct Melvins, Super-Conductor, and Earth. Preston found that his favorite line-up was a one-man symphony of destruction-an epic of sound and fury that bends the soul and enlightens the mind."
